

TERMS OF REFERENCE OF THE MINISTERIAL COUNCIL REVIEW OF FOOD LABELLING LAW AND POLICY

The Australia and New Zealand Food Regulation Ministerial Council has commissioned an independent comprehensive review of food labelling law and policy.

The Terms of Reference for the review are as follows:

1. Examine the policy drivers impacting on demands for food labelling.
2. Consider what should be the role for government in the regulation of food labelling. What principles should guide decisions about government regulatory intervention?
3. Consider what policies and mechanisms are needed to ensure that government plays its optimum role.
4. Consider principles and approaches to achieve compliance with labelling requirements, and appropriate and consistent enforcement.
5. Evaluate current policies, standards and laws relevant to food labelling and existing work on health claims and front of pack labelling against terms of reference 1-4 above.
6. Make recommendations to improve food labelling law and policy.

www.huntblog.com.au

